

This is a conversation between Ralph Allison and Becky, an ISH.

MYSTICS

Ralph: Now here we do have anonymously written classic, The Cloud of Unknowing. Which I had never heard of, of course. Does that relate to anything you ever heard of?

Becky: No.

R: "One of the earliest Christian authors writing this was Dionysius, ???, sometimes known as Pseudodyonesis, in a short work, Mystical Theology." Now, maybe Charity knows him. The question I always have is whether or not this particular fellow was at that lifetime in his last lifetime, was he somebody who was good enough to become part of The Great Teacher. If so, he's got a good record.

B: Charity says no.

R: She says no, he did not qualify, huh. Well then we won't bother to look up the book. If he were, then his would be one to get. He has "Angelic Hierarchy" that he wrote about. Now where would he get this information about Angelic Hierarchy?

B: If you remember right, Charity says there are no hierarchies. In our realm, there are no hierarchies.

R: I'm just always curious where these people's data comes from.
